

ILLINOIS CPA SOCIETY™

Illinois CPA Society Conferences

(All numbers are based on conference history.)

Controllers Conference, March

Rosemont - Attendance: 130

Attendee demographics: Industry 72%; Non-Profit/Association 13%; Public Accounting 3%; Education 2%

Who will benefit: Controllers, CFOs, vice presidents of finance, directors of finance, assistant controllers, CPAs in management, business and industry, and other senior-level accounting and financial executives

Government Conference, April

Oakbrook - Attendance: 230

Oakbrook attendee demographics: Public Accounting 81%; Government 15%; Non-Profit/Association 2%

Springfield - Attendance: 250

Springfield attendee demographics: Public Accounting 76%; Government 19%; Non-Profit/Association 1%, Education 2%

Who will benefit: Accountants, financial officers, treasurers, auditors, consultants, lawyers or CPAs who work for or with federal, state, or local government agencies

Estate & Gift Tax Conference, May

Chicago - Attendance: 160

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 62%; Industry 18%;

Who will benefit: CPAs, auditors, attorneys, accountants, peer reviewers and sole practitioners, consultants or other finance professionals who practice or have an interest in estate planning, estate and gift tax or business valuation

Employee Benefits Conference, May

Chicago - Attendance: 180

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 80%; Government 15%; Industry 10%; Non-Profit/Association 4%;

Who will benefit: CPAs, auditors, financial planners, consultants, attorneys, pension actuaries, plan administrators, human resources executives, and others who work with or have an interest in employee benefits

Manufacturing Conference, October

Chicago – Attendance: 50

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 50%; Industry 40%

Who will benefit: CPAs, CEOs, CFOs, controllers, and other financial and accounting professionals who work in a manufacturing environment or have clients in that scope.

Taxation on Real Estate Conference, June

Chicago - Attendance: 75

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 55%; Industry 15%; Education 5%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors, business litigators, financial analysis, fraud investigators, forensic accounting students and educators.

Not-for-Profit Advanced and Emerging Accounting and A-133 Issues Conference, June

Chicago – Attendance: 130

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 69%, Government 1%, Non-Profit/Association 22%, Education 3%, Industry 1%

Who will benefit: CPAs and financial professionals who work in and with not-for-profits, including CFOs, controllers, accounting managers, public accountants, board members and auditors.

Financial Institutions Conference, September

Lisle - Attendance: 100

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 54%; Industry 33%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors, regulators, and finance professionals who work for or with banks, credit unions, or savings institutions

Midwest Financial Reporting Symposium, September

Rosemont - Attendance: 140

Attendee demographics: Industry 68%; Public Accounting 12%; Government 5%; Non-Profit Association 5%; Education 3%

Who will benefit: Corporate financial professionals, CFOs, controller/treasurers, directors, internal auditors, managers/supervisors, and other executive level professionals

IRS/Tax Practitioner Symposium, September

Rosemont - Attendance: 85

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 68%; Government 6%; Industry 4%; Non-Profit Association 1%; Education 1%

Who will benefit: IRS personnel and tax practitioners

Construction Industry Conference, October

Oak Brook - Attendance: 110

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 74%; Industry 25%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors and finance professionals who work for or with construction firms

Not-for-Profit Conference, November

Rosemont - Attendance: 230

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 65%; Non-Profit/Association 25%; Education 4%; Industry 2%;

Who will benefit: CPAs and financial professionals who work in and with not-for-profits, including CFOs, controllers, accounting managers, public accountants and board members

Fraud & Forensic Accounting Conference, October

Chicago - Attendance: 50

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 34%; Industry 24%; Government 11%; Non-Profit/Association 4%; Education 1%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors and financial professionals who work for or with fraud investigation

Healthcare Compliance & Fraud Half-Day Conference, November

Rosemont - Attendance: 170

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 20%; Industry 18%; Government 1%; Non-Profit/Association 7%; Education 1%

Who will benefit: CPAs, auditors, attorneys, financial advisors, healthcare administrators, other financial and healthcare professionals, physicians from not-for-profits or for-profits organizations, and nursing home administrators and professionals

Accounting & Auditing Conference, December

Springfield - Attendance: 50

Springfield attendee demographics: Public Accounting 75%; Government 6%; Non-Profit/Association 7%; Industry 11%; Education 4%

Rosemont - Attendance: 200

Rosemont attendee demographics: Public Accounting 85%; Government 1%; Non-Profit/Association 1%; Industry 8%; Education 1%

Who will benefit: CPAs, auditors, consultants, peer reviewers and sole practitioners

Not-for-Profit Downstate Conference, December

Springfield – Attendance: 75

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 69%; Government 1%; Non-Profit/Association 23%; Industry 1%; Education 2%

Who will benefit: CPAs and financial professionals who work in and with not-for profits, including CFOs, controllers, accounting managers, public accountants and board members

Advance Topics in Flow-Through Taxation Half-Day Conference, December

Chicago - Attendance: 50

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 88%; Non-Profit/Association 1%; Industry 10%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors and tax professionals

Employee Benefits Conference, December

Rosemont - Attendance: 120

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 92%; Industry 5%; Non-Profit/Association 1%;

Who will benefit: CPAs, auditors, financial planners, consultants, attorneys, pension actuaries, plan administrators, human resources executives or other who work with or have an interest in employee benefits

State & Local Tax Conference, January

Chicago - Attendance: 60

Attendee demographics: Public Accounting 87%; Industry 9%

Who will benefit: CPAs, accountants, financial officers, auditors and tax professionals