While in inactive status, CPAs shall not perform accountancy activities or hold him/herself out as a CPA (225 ILCS 450/17.2a, d & e).	Members who have placed their license in inactive status with IDFPR and do not hold themselves out as CPAs are exempt from the AICPA's CPE requirement while they remain in that status.		Not Applicable

* CPE is not required to maintain one's registration with IDFPR (i.e., Registered Certified Public Accountant (RCPA)). CPE is required for IDFPR licensure (i.e., Licensed Certified Public Accountant (LCPA)), AICPA membership and Yellow Book standards as outlined above.

 Personnel are defined in the AICPA Quality Control Standards as "partners and staff." Partners include individuals with authority to bind the firm with respect to the performance of a professional service engagement, including employees with this authority who have not assumed the risks and benefits of ownership. Staff includes professionals, other than partners, including any specialists that the firm employs.

 Auditors who plan, direct, perform engagement procedures for, or report on Yellow Book assignments must meet both the 24- AND 56-hour requirements (for a total of 80 hours every two years). Auditors who charge less than 20% of their time annually to Yellow Book assignments AND are only involved in performing engagement procedures, but not planning, directing, or reporting on engagement(s), are exempt from the 56-hour requirement. Nonsupervisory auditors who charge less than 40 hours of their time annually to Yellow Book assignments, and college or university students hired for a limited period of time, are exempt from all GAGAS CPE requirements. External specialists as well as internal specialists who are not involved in planning, directing, performing engagement procedures, or reporting are also exempt from all GAGAS CPE requirements.

CPE Requirements – Reporting Periods

		Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (IDFPR) Licensure	American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Membership	Illinois CPA Society Membership	Government Accountability Office (GAO) "Yellow Book"
REPORTING PERIODS	Initial period	New licensees not required to begin accumulating CPE hours until after first renewal period (225 ILCS 450/16d).	From January 1, 2001 forward, and for each three-year reporting period thereafter, all AICPA members shall complete 120 hours, or its equivalent, of continuing professional education (BL §230R.04).	There are no CPE requirements for ICPAS membership.	Audit organizations must assign auditors who, before beginning work on the engagement, collectively possess the competence needed to address the engagement objectives and perform their work in accordance with GAGAS (GAS 4.02). Competence is derived from a combination of education and experience (GAS 4.06).
	Current period	October 1, 2021 through September 30, 2024	Reporting periods are fixed three-year periods that begin on the January 1st following the date of a person's initial AICPA membership or upgrading to regular member. For example, if an individual joined the AICPA in August 2022, his or her first three-year CPE reporting period would be January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2025, and he or she would continue to report on subsequent three-year periods thereafter.*		Audit organizations may establish a standard 2-year period for all its auditors, which can be on either a fixed-year or rolling-year basis (GAS 4.48).
	Alternate measurement date	Not applicable	Not applicable		Audit organizations may use a measurement date other than the date it started its first GAGAS engagement to coincide with reporting periods for state licensing or professional membership organizations (GAS 4.49).
	Deficiency makeup	Licensees who have not fully complied with their CPE requirement may request a waiver from IDFPR, which will waive enforcement or extend the deadline in cases where "extreme hardship" has been shown, including military service, illness or other extenuating circumstances (68 Ill. Adm. Code 1420.70e).	Members who have not completed the required number of CPE hours for any three-year period have two months immediately following the reporting period to make up the deficiency; any hours credited toward a deficiency in one period may not be counted toward the requirement for the next three-year period*		Auditors who have not completed the required number of CPE hours for any two-year period have two months immediately following the two-year period to make up the deficiency; any hours credited toward a deficiency in one period may not be counted toward the requirement for the next two-year period (GAS 4.44).
