I. NAME

The name of the committee is the Illinois CPAs for Political Action, a committee of the Illinois CPA Society (ICPAS).

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action is to promote good citizenship through the personal and financial participation of ICPAS members and others in the elective process at the state and local levels of government. The Illinois CPAs for Political Action is not affiliated with any political party and is organized and operated on a voluntary non-partisan basis for the advancement of the practice of certified public accountants and CPA firms by soliciting and accepting donations from ICPAS members and others to be kept in a separate segregated fund to be used for operational and administrative expenses and contributed to support the nomination and the election of candidates for state and local elective offices who support the legislative goals of ICPAS.
III. POWERS

The Illinois CPAs for Political Action is empowered to solicit and receive voluntary donations in conformity with applicable laws and regulations and to make contributions and expenditures in conformity with applicable laws and regulations to further the candidacies of selected candidates for state and local elected offices, to adopt such rules and regulations as may be deemed appropriate, and to do such other or further things as may be necessary or desirable for the attainment of the purposes above stated.

IV. STEERING COMMITTEE

Section 4.01. Membership. Members of the Steering Committee shall be nominated by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of ICPAS, subject to the approval by the Executive Committee of ICPAS. There shall be no fewer than six members on the Steering Committee. Members shall serve for terms of two years and may be reappointed provided that no person shall serve on the Steering Committee for more than six consecutive years after the adoption of this Governance Document. The President and Chief Executive Officer of ICPAS, the Vice President of Government Relations of ICPAS, and the contractual legislative counsel of ICPAS shall serve as non-voting ex-officio members.

Section 4.02. Duties. The Steering Committee shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be deemed appropriate, be responsible for selecting candidates and political committees to which contributions will be made, and shall direct the Treasurer to make such contributions. The Steering Committee may delegate to the Chairperson or to the Secretary the responsibility for recommending to the Steering Committee candidates or political committees to receive contributions within the guidelines set forth by the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee may allocate money for the Chief Executive Officer to make contributions and expenditures that are viewed as appropriate by the Chief Executive Officer in furtherance of this Governance Document. The Chief Executive Officer shall submit to the Steering Committee a report of these contributions and expenditures at the next regularly scheduled Steering Committee meeting.

Section 4.03. Meetings. Meetings of the Steering Committee shall be called by the Chairperson, and shall be called by the Chairperson upon the request of any two members of the Steering Committee. Five days’ notice shall be given to all members of the Steering Committee. Meetings may occur in person or by telephone or video conference.

Section 4.04. Quorum. No fewer than half of the Steering Committee shall constitute a quorum, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of the Steering Committee present and voting. Steering Committee members may authorize proxy voting in writing or by electronic means. If a quorum is not present, the members present may adjourn the meeting to a day, hour and place fixed by such lesser number.

Section 4.05. Fiscal Year and Reporting. The fiscal year for the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be April 1 – March 31. The Steering Committee shall make a semi-annual report to the ICPAS Board of Directors regarding the activity for the previous six-month period.

Section 4.06. Removal. Any member of the Steering Committee may be removed at any time with or without cause by the Board of Directors of ICPAS.
Section 4.07. Other Committees. Such other subcommittees as may be necessary or desirable in the conduct of the business of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action may be established by the Steering Committee.

V. OFFICERS

Section 5.01. Officers. The officers of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer and Secretary. Any one person may hold more than one office if necessary. Officers shall be nominated by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of ICPAS, subject to the approval by the Executive Committee of ICPAS and shall continue to serve in their respective offices until their successors are appointed and qualified. The provision of Section 5.01 preempts the term limit specification provided in Section 4.01 so that the current officers shall continue to serve until such time as new officers are approved by the Executive Committee and are ready to assume the duties of their respective offices.

Section 5.02. Chairperson. The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action, shall act as Chairperson of the Steering Committee, and shall be a member of all subcommittees of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action. If the Chairperson is temporarily unable or unwilling to act, the Vice Chairperson shall act in his or her stead. If the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson is not available to preside at a meeting, any member of the Steering Committee selected by a majority vote of those present may act as Presiding Officer pro tempore.

Section 5.03. Vice Chairperson. The Vice Chairperson shall, in the absence of the Chairperson, assume all powers and duties of the Chairperson.
Section 5.04. Treasurer. The Treasurer of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be responsible for the financial activities of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action and shall maintain all financial records. The Treasurer shall be assisted by ICPAS staff in carrying out the specified duties of his or her office. The Treasurer, with the assistance of ICPAS staff, is required to:

(a). Keep all records of Illinois CPAs for Political Action as required by federal, state or local law;

(b). Prepare, sign, and file all reports, with the assistance of ICPAS staff, required of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action by federal, state or local law; and

(c). Submit reports to ICPAS as required by the Board of Directors of ICPAS, but not less than annually.

Section 5.05. Secretary. The Secretary, with the assistance of ICPAS staff, will ensure that minutes shall be taken of all meetings, shall be responsible for all correspondence, and shall give notice of meetings.

Section 5.06. Term Limits. Officers shall serve for terms of two years and may be reappointed provided that no person may serve in an office for more than six consecutive years, and may thereafter serve in the office only if an intervening period of twelve or more months has passed.

Section 5.07. Operations. The day to day operations of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be directed by the Chief Executive Officer who shall be the person serving as the President and Chief Executive Officer of ICPAS.

Section 5.08. Removal. Any officer may be removed at any time with or without cause by the Board of Directors of ICPAS.
VI. DONATIONS

Section 6.01. Donations. Donations may be solicited from members of ICPAS and others and will be strictly voluntary on their part.

Section 6.02. Separate Fund. All donations to the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be maintained by the Illinois CPAs for Political Action as a separate segregated fund, and all expenditures made by the Illinois CPAs for Political Action or contributions to any candidate or to any political committee shall be made from such fund and from no other source.

Section 6.03. Personal Gain. No member of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action Steering Committee shall have the right to share personally in any funds or assets of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action other than for the reimbursement of ordinary business expenses.

VII. AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this Governance Document may be recommended to the ICPAS Board of Directors by two-thirds of the members of the Steering Committee. No amendment shall be effective unless approved by ICPAS Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors may unilaterally amend this Governance Document.

VIII. PRINCIPAL OFFICE
The principal office of the Illinois CPAs for Political Action shall be at 550 W. Jackson Blvd., Suite 900, Chicago, Illinois 60661, or at such other place or places as the Steering Committee may from time to time designate by resolution.

IX. DISSOLUTION AND DISPOSITION OF NON-EXPENDED FUNDS

The Illinois CPAs for Political Action may be dissolved at any time by action of a majority of the Steering Committee and with the approval of the Board of Directors of ICPAS. In the event of dissolution, non-expended funds may be disposed of in any manner authorized by law and approved in advance by the Board of Directors of ICPAS.

X. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE

If any provision of this Governance Document or its application to any person or circumstance is invalid, the invalidity of that provision or application does not affect the other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and the remaining provisions and applications shall remain in full force and effect.
